“POSITIVE PARENTING 2005” PRESENTATION TO BE HELD AT PARRISH MEDICAL CENTER

Titusville, FL (October 21, 2005)—The People Development/Education Department at Parrish Medical Center (PMC) is offering a one-hour presentation on “Positive Parenting 2005” on Monday, November 14, noon to 1 p.m., in the PMC Conference Center. Jerald Smith, D.Min., PMC Chaplain will present this class.

Attendees will learn how the family life-cycle impacts both parents and children, the importance of setting clear boundaries for children, and how to avoid common problems that negatively impact children.

This is a unique opportunity for Parrish Medical Center to extend lifelong learning opportunities to caregivers and community members alike.

The class is free. To register, please call the People Development/Education Department at 268-6195.

Parrish Medical Center (PMC) is a not-for-profit, public 210-bed medical center serving North Brevard County. For more information, visit parrishmed.com.
